Part Eight: Short Essay

Essays should be approximately 500-750 words in length, typed, double-spaced, with 12-point font and 1” margins. Please answer one essay; submit your essay with this application.

Community Bonner Leaders

1. Please describe an experience that exemplifies why service is an important aspect of your life in general and your life at Saint Mary’s College.
2. Share a story that shows your ability to make a commitment over time – what contributes to your success, how do you envision sustaining your weekly commitment to your community partner and the Bonner community?

Campus Based Bonner Leaders (Service Project, Social Action & Education, Service Immersion)

1. Describe one past experience that will influence how you would be a leader for service and/or social justice education on the SMC campus (this could be a course you've taken, a project you've been part of, a person you've met at a non-profit agency or school, etc.).
2. What are the top three skills you would bring to the work of the campus—skills that would help you to engage students with service and social justice work on campus? Spend one paragraph/skill.

Engaged Learning Facilitators

Have you taken a service-learning or community-based research (CBR) course? If so, please describe what you learned (academically, personally, spiritually, etc.) from the experience. Be sure to include the course name, semester and the community partner where you performed your service. If you have not taken a service-learning or CBR course please describe a meaningful direct service experience you have had in the local community and what you have learned (about yourself, social issues, the nonprofit world, etc.) from that experience.

CILSA Office Assistant

Please describe your recent community service and leadership experiences and explain how these experiences have helped you develop your organizational, communication and leadership skills.

Part Nine: References

Your two references can be faculty or staff at the College, or off-campus current or past employers or community service supervisors. Distribute reference forms to these people and ask them to return the forms to CILSA.
