CITY INFORMATION

Capital of Andalusia, Sevilla was one of the last footholds of the Moorish empire that ruled the Iberian Peninsula. Though the city preserves its past, modern Sevilla is the commercial hub of Andalusia. For a city of about 700,000 Sevilla offers amazing cultural activities, from flamenco to classical, pop, and jazz concerts.

UNIVERSITY INFORMATION

CIEE Study Center

Located in a beautifully renovated Sevillano Palace built in 1725, the Center is centrally located and is about ten minutes on foot from the main Universidad de Sevilla building (the Tabacalera). Housed in the CIEE Study Center are classrooms, CIEE student services, and CIEE administration.

Universidad de Sevilla

Since its establishment in the 16th century, the Universidad de Sevilla has been one of Spain's leading institutions of higher learning. The schools of Philology, Geography and

THE COUNCIL ON INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION EXCHANGE'S (CIEE)

Study Center includes a full team of International Student Advisors. They are committed to helping you reach your full potential while studying in Sevilla. Dr. Maritheresa Frain is the CIEE Study Center Director. She completed her undergraduate work in International Politics at The Pennsylvania State University and received her M.A. and Ph.D. in International Relations at Georgetown University.

History, Philosophy, Law, Communications, Labor Sciences, Mathematics, Psychology, Business, Economics, Natural Sciences, and Engineering, and its many departments and institutes, serve the educational needs of Spain's most populous region. In total, the Universidad de Sevilla is the educational center for some 60,000 students.

Universidad Pablo De Olavide (UPO)

With 9,000 students, the Universidad Pablo de Olavide (UPO) is the second state-run university in Sevilla, located on a 345-acre campus, about a twenty-minute bus ride from the center of the city. The UPO offers both undergraduate and graduate programs in the traditional majors as well as environmental sciences, biotechnology, sports sciences, translation, humanities, labor relations, second language acquisition, and social work. Its facilities are equipped with the latest in technology including campus-wide wireless Internet access, computer, television, video and audio centers, an open access library, sports facilities, and science laboratories.

CULTURAL EXPERIENCES

The academic program is supplemented with field trips and excursions to points of interest in Sevilla and Spain that highlight topics covered in class. Past excursions have included: Granada, Morocco, Cádiz and Córdoba, and Aracena.

HOUSING

Students have the option to live with local families or reside in an off-campus residencia with international and Spanish students. Homestays are strongly recommended to enrich your cultural experience and language acquisition.

Homestay families are located in the city with easy access to shopping, restaurants, and public transportation to the University. Homestay families have been carefully chosen based on their friendliness and helpfulness towards past students. Students will have single or double fully furnished rooms and all meals and laundry service are provided.
