PRIMARY ACADEMIC INTEREST:

First time freshman applicants to Saint Mary's College are not required to declare a major, *with the exception of applicants to the 2+2 Nursing program who must declare their interest in the nursing program. Freshman applicants interested in other programs, however, are encouraged to indicate a primary academic interest.

Transfer applicants should indicate their intended major in order to receive appropriate transfer credit evaluations and advisement.

Please inform us of your primary academic interest:

Admission to the 2+2 nursing program is only open to first time freshman applicants applying for the fall semester. Spring admission is not available to this program, and the program is not available to transfer applicants.*
