

East Asian Studies Minor

The minor in Japanese Studies gives students language skills and cultural competencies for traveling and working in Japan.

The following lower-division courses are required for the minor unless students place directly into JAPAN 201 or higher.

JAPAN 101 Beginning Japanese (4CU)

JAPAN 102 Continuing Beginning Japanese (4CU) CORE: Arts and Humanities

JAPAN 201 Intermediate Japanese (4CU) CORE: Global Issues and Perspectives

One conversation course and one culture course are required, courses may be repeated.

JAPAN 110 (1CU) Basic Conversation or *JAPAN 310 (1CU) Intermediate/advanced Conversation

JAPAN 120 (1CU) Introduction to Japanese Culture or *JAPAN 320 (1CU) Advanced Culture

Take at least 7 upper division units from the following:

JAPAN 310 (1CU) Intermediate/advanced Conversation

JAPAN 320 (1CU) Advanced Culture

JAPAN 301 (5CU) Continuing Intermediate Japanese CORE: Engaged Learning

WLC 300 (3CU) Modern Critical Theory CORE: Global Issues and Perspectives

JAPAN 350 (1CU) Language Tutorial

JAPAN 495 (1CU) Internship

JAPAN 496 (1CU) Capstone

*Upper division courses

Total of 21 CU

Students starting in JAPANESE 101 (with no prior exposure to the language)

	Fall	Units	Jan	Spring	Units	Total
FR	JAPAN 101	4		JAPAN 102	4	8
SO	JAPAN 201 or WLC 300 + JAPAN 350	4 (3 + 1)		JAPAN 301 + EL	5	9
JR	Study abroad recommended or JAPAN 310, 350 or 395	1		JAPAN 320 or 495	1	2
SR	JAPAN 310 or 495	1		JAPAN 320 or 496	1	2
Total:						21

CONTACT: Naoko Uehara: nuehara@stmarys-ca.edu