Did You Know?

Phishing is one of the most prevalent forms of fraud today. Cyber criminals attempt to bait individuals through emails, texts, software, ads, and more to lure you into providing personal information that could be used to compromise your finances, security or files. Learn how you can

Playing in Streams

Ecologist and Biology Professor Michael Marchetti studies salamanders with Saint Mary's students. He works to inspire students and faculty alike to appreciate surrounding places. "One of my goals is to take people outside...and see the natural world and its beauty, and then maybe they'll care about it."

De La Salle Reflections

For the week of Oct. 16.

Learn how to submit Events and Announcements.

Brother Gustavo Ramirez Barba, General Councilor for the Lasallian association for the educational mission, outlined ways Saint Mary's staff can influence students as Lasallian educators during an October 13 workshop on campus. "One of the things staff had said is that they want to feel more included . . . feel part of the whole," said Carole Swain, vice president for mission.

"Brother Gustavo's retreats give participants a sense of building community and that they belong."

The Future and Revolution of the Energy Industry

Matt Rogers, Senior Partner at McKinsey & Company, kicks off SEBA's Executive Speaker Series on Monday, Oct. 16 at 6 p.m in Claeys Lounge. Rogers focuses on the role technology and innovation play in restructuring markets, especially in oil, gas, power, and other energy and industrial companies. RSVP is required.
