Saint Mary's Honors Veterans

With Veterans Day on Friday, Saint Mary's is honoring veterans in two places on campus this month—at the Museum of Art in *The American Soldier, A Photographic Tribute, The Civil War to Iraq exhibit* and at Saint Mary's Library, through a companion display of images and text about veterans with SMC connections.

The Hero's Story

Jim Ott EdD '15 helps veterans at Las Positas College in Livermore find release in writing their stories. One of Ott's students, haunted by an indelible act of self-sacrifice he had witnessed in Iraq, reported that "writing the personal narrative was the most therapeutic thing I've ever done in my life."

Faith Journey

Chanel Farago '16 shares her story of finding a calling to the Catholic faith at Saint Mary's and becoming baptized in the final weeks of her senior year. Father Hai Ho '03 said he hopes for SMC students "to be touched deeply—in the mind and the heart."

address can vote in person at the Soda Center, and anyone voting with a Contra Costa County absentee ballot can drop off their ballot right here at SMC or at any polling place in Contra Costa County. Thanks to Saint Mary's partnership with TurboVote, SMC registered 179 new voters online this year—57 of those registered with the campus as their address.

Women Leaders Talk Workplace Empowerment

SEBA's Women in Leadership panel, moderated by PwC Diversity and Inclusion Leader Moire Rasmussen, focused on empowering women leaders last Thursday. Panelists discussed raising the number of female Fortune 500 CEOs from 5 percent to 50 percent. "We need to create a sisterhood to support other women," said Kaiser Permanente's Donna Uchida. The other panelists were Tiffin Groff MBA '03 from Peet's Coffee & Tea, and Amy Verneti '90 from Google. (Left to right) Uchida, Groff, Verneti, Kris Snow EMBA '90 of Cisco Systems, SEBA Dean Zhan Li, and Rasmussen.

View

Justin Howard '19, Hannah Keihl '19, and Miguel Angeles '17 (l to r) performed as Sir Andrew Aguecheek, Fabian, and Sir Toby Belch in Shakespeare's Twelfth Night over the weekend. The production conjured the play's setting of Illyria as a glamorous fantasy of 1920s Hollywood and overflowed with music and song.
