PROPOSAL:
CATALOG CHANGE FOR ART 196
PRESENTER: PETER FREUND, ART & ART HISTORY DEPARTMENT

EXISTING:

ART 196 Senior Thesis Project
As a capstone to their studies, seniors in art practice are required to work independently with a departmental faculty member in order to complete a thesis project, typically an exhibition of a coherent body of original artwork. This course is limited to seniors in the major. Permission of the faculty member and department chair required.

CHANGE TO:

ART 196 Capstone Project
Art Practice majors are required to complete a thesis project as a capstone to their studies.
This project typically entails the production and exhibition of a coherent body of original artwork. This course provides the time and credit for students to pursue their capstone project under the supervision of a department faculty member. The course is limited to upper division students in the major, minor, and split majors. Permission of the faculty member and department chair required.
