New Course Proposal

Department: Biology 128

Title of course: Advanced Human Anatomy

Number of hours: 3 hours of lecture and 4 hours of lab per week

Duration of course: 13 weeks, one semester

Course credit: 1.0 course credit, upper division

Course description: Study of the anatomy of the human body. This course is taught through a regional approach, emphasizing the structural relationships and functional aspects of gross anatomy, histology and embryology. References to the evolution of anatomic structure will be included. Extensive out of class dissections will be expected. This course is limited to Biology and Biochemistry majors.

Prerequisites: Biology 1, 1L, 2, 2L

Department approval: The Biology Department has unanimously approved this course.