The minor programs in Ethnic Studies with a concentration in either InterGroup Dialogue or Interactive Theater provide students with opportunities to develop specific skills and practice in these areas, specifically to address issues of incivility and injustice on campus and in the community. Students complete 5 courses in each area – 4 of which are combined courses where students working towards both concentrations are in the classroom together. Students also complete a capstone course, where they integrate their academic and praxis work into an original project.

In the courses for the concentrations, students encounter both academic and practical knowledge to empower them to respectfully engage issues of social justice on and off campus. Students will have the opportunity to participate in dialogues and theater experiences on campus with peers, as well as off-campus with local schools and other groups. Students work closely with the Ethnic Studies faculty who oversee the program.

The skills learned through these concentrations will enhance any major that a student chooses and will prepare them to be leaders in whatever field they choose to work in or study after Saint Mary’s. This minor concentration might especially work well with majors of psychology, sociology, business, anthropology, and liberal and civic studies.
