Core Curriculum Committee: Update for Academic Senate
March 6th 2014

NUMBERS
Course Designations: Long semester
   Artistic Analysis: 34 total, 6 new Artistic Analysis and Creative Practice: 12 total, 3 new Creative Practice: 8 total, 1 new Social, Historical, Cultural Understanding: 38 total, 13 new Christian Foundations: 3 total, 2 new Theological Explorations: 35 total, 12 new Mathematical Understanding: 8 total, 1 new Scientific Understanding: 11 total, 1 new American Diversity: 28 total, 8 new Community Engagement: 34 total, 6 new
   The Common Good: 24 total, 7 new Global Perspective: 27 total, 12 new

January Term 2014
   American Diversity: 7
   Community Engagement: 13
   Global Perspective: 18
   The Common Good: 16

Writing in the Disciplines Courses: Nearly all majors have a course (about half of these running, about a third being designed, and the rest a believable twinkle).

Faculty Involvement: Over the first three years there have been 11 CCC members and 53 Working Group members (not counting WG chairs)

UPCOMING WORK:

Remainder of 2014 and into 2014-2015
a. Elections upcoming for CCC (two positions – at large, SoS), Working Groups
b. Three year governing language update
c. Jan Term 2015
d. Transfer and Study Abroad: How to determine off-campus Core courses?
e. Engaging the World Experiences
f. Few new long-semester course proposals in 2014-15 (?) so time to Start of Core Learning Goal Assessment
   Reconnect to national conversation & best practices

2015-2016
a. First class graduates. (Many Petitions?)
b. Start of re-designations (“designation renewals”)c. Results of assessment and possible emendations to LG&LO language