Faculty Awarded SMC Research Grants

Thirteen faculty members have been awarded 10 SMC Faculty Research Grants, only the second year that ranked faculty have had the chance to apply for a fully funded grant (from $7,500 to $9,000) given annually. Come celebrate faculty research, scholarship, and creative activity at Saint Mary's and honor the 13 recipients, as well as the winners of the Annual Faculty Awards—Raina León, Margaret Field, Saroja Subrahmanyam, and Jennifer Heung—Feb. 19, 5-7 p.m. at Hagerty Lounge in De La Salle Hall.

Museum Reopens with Instagael

The Saint Mary's College Museum of Art reopened yesterday with new exhibits, including Instagael: SMC Student Instagrams, a show of winning student submissions. Other exhibits are contemporary art show Environmental Impact; David Maxim: Points of View; and William Keith and the Battle for Hetch Hetchy.

Spotlight on Staff: Tony San Nicolas

Assistant Director of Financial Aid Tony San Nicolas counsels undergrads on paying for college and finding alternative financing options. An avid sports fan, he was there to see Tim Lincecum pitch his no-hitter in 2014 and tries to attend sporting events regularly. He also prepares a mean barbecue and likes to entertain.

Future Gaels on Campus

Join the Undergraduate Admissions office in welcoming prospective class of 2020 students and their families to campus for upcoming events this spring. They include two Night-n-Gael overnights, March 8-9 and April 12-13, hosted by current students in the residence halls. And April 2, students can visit campus for Saturday at SMC.

The new EdTech Center, which offers technology support for faculty (accessible via the Library Tech Bar), opens Wednesday, Feb. 17, thanks to the collaboration of IT Services, the Educational Technology Group, and the Center for Teaching, Learning and Scholarship. Faculty can learn about multimedia equipment like classroom projectors, Apple TV, Moodle, Google Mail, shared interactive documents such as Google Drive, flipping the classroom, open educational resources such as free online textbooks, and more. There will be a question-and-answer session with campus technology leaders from 11:45 a.m.–1 p.m., including a light lunch. Faculty can also drop by for one-on-one consultations between 8:30 a.m. and 6 p.m.
