Student Learning Outcomes
M.A. in Educational Leadership

- Candidates will apply leadership to schools and school systems marked by the participation and collaboration of the professional staff and community stakeholders.
- Candidates will integrate the needs of an educational community and become their voice.
- Candidates will demonstrate the ability to work through the difficult ethical and legal decisions confronting school leaders.
- Candidates will develop the capacity to engage in critical inquiry about education and its relationship to society.
- Candidates will engage in action research learning as a means of leading change in teaching practices, site management, and district management.