"Growing Up Latino" Cultural Night

Cultural Nights continue with "Growing up Latino," the 16th annual Latino Cultural Night, Wednesday, 6–9 p.m. in the Soda Center. This year's theme celebrates the diversity of Latino cultures. "It's really about how people from Latino cultures all grew up differently," said Leslie Montano, Latino Cultural Night chair. "Even though we're all Latino, everyone is from a different country." Tickets will be sold at the door starting at 5 p.m.

#Fergusonsyllabus Founder Speaks at SMC

The Wo/Men's Leadership Conference kicked off Saturday with "Where Do We Go From Here? Building Community in Times of Crisis," a keynote address by Marcia Chatelain, assistant professor of history at Georgetown University, who created #Fergusonsyllabus to promote classroom discussion about the shooting of Michael Brown in Ferguson 2014.
