Saint Mary's Welcomes Brother Thomas Johnson

Brother Thomas Johnson, the director of the Novitiate for the Lasallian Region of North America, will receive an honorary doctoral degree at the annual De La Salle Week Convocation at 1 p.m. Wednesday, April 13, in the Chapel. Johnson, recognized for his faith-inspired leadership and administrative acumen, guides young men during their one-year formation period of reflection and discernment before they join the De La Salle Christian Brothers.

Sandr  Swanson to Speak at CCIE Event

The College Committee on Inclusive Excellence (CCIE) hosts its annual spring event, "Inform, Inspire, Engage—Inclusion Matters," on April 14 at 11:30 a.m. in the Soda Center. The guest speaker is Sandr  Swanson, chair of the California State Assembly Select Committee on the Status of Boys and Men of Color. Also, this week the CCIE released Inclusion Matters, a newsletter highlighting the College's commitment to inclusive excellence and the needs of its diverse community.

2016 Professor of the Year: Carla Bossard

Carla Bossard—world traveler, scientist, and humanitarian—was celebrated as the 2016 Professor of the Year last week. In her talk,

Did You Know?

Feeling creative? In celebration of De La Salle Week, send us your best and most inventive photos with the De La Salle statue. Strike a pose, take a selfie, or shoot the statue from an interesting angle. Be sure to tag your photos #DLSWeek16.

"The Value of Being a Stranger in a Strange Land," Bossard encouraged fellow faculty to help students have meaningful experiences and learn about the rest of the world.

Ballet to Broadway

Garen Scribner '11 may be the only professional dancer to have partnered Jennifer Lopez and performed with the teenage Chelsea Clinton. Now dancing, and singing and acting, the lead role in the Broadway musical An American in Paris, Scribner is also the rare dancer with a college degree earned while performing full-time, thanks to Saint Mary's LEAP program.

Brother Charles Lectures at Reagan Library

Brother Charles Hilken gave a lecture April 3 at the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library in Simi Valley about the "Vatican Splendors" exhibit, which presents the history of the Vatican, the ministries of the papacy, and Christian art. Brother Charles, who consulted on the exhibit, highlighted his favorite relics and pieces in the show, and answered questions from SMC alumni, parents, and friends.
