Celebrate 2016's Staff Distinction Award-Winners

The winners of Saint Mary's first Staff Distinction Awards will be honored at a reception Thursday, April 28, 3:30-5:30 p.m., in the faculty/staff dining room, hosted by the Staff Council and Human Resources Department. The honorees are Carol Kenney, Customer Service; Ryan Lamberton, Inclusive Excellence and Building SMC Community; Dean Nakamura, Innovative Solutions; Tracy Pascua Dea, Leadership; and Victoria Gonzalez, Pillar of Strength.

Search for Chief Financial Officer

Earlier this year we announced the retirement of Peter Michell, Saint Mary's Vice President for Finance and Administration, who will complete his 14 successful years in this post this summer. While it certainly will be a challenge to fill Pete's shoes, we are setting out to find an experienced and innovative financial leader to assume the duties of this key member of the President's Cabinet who will guide the College's financial well-being into the future.

Edible Education

Nick Anicich '14 loved working in his family's sideyard garden outside Sacramento but hated vegetables. But at SMC, Anicich cleaned up his diet to resolve a health problem, and embraced a leafier, greener lifestyle. Today, Anicich serves as program coordinator for the 4-year-old Edible Sac High, a garden-to-classroom program at Sacramento Charter High.

Creative Parking Solutions in the Works

With parking a continued challenge on campus, the Facilities Department continues to work on creative ways to make room for more cars. Recently, almost 30 spaces have become newly available for parking, plus continued access to the gravel lot on Saint Mary's Road. Several projects are on tap for the summer. Please contact

On Wednesday starting at 8 a.m. on the Chapel Lawn, the campus community will take turns reading Homer's Odyssey out loud. Readers will read as much or as little as they choose, in any voice or style. Creative interpretation is encouraged, as prizes will be awarded for the longest, funniest, and most dramatic readings. This is the second year for the event sponsored by the Collegiate Seminar Informal Curriculum.

SEBA Students Travel to Korea

Students met leaders of global companies during an enlightening week-long cultural immersion to Seoul, Korea this spring. Fourteen PMBA students traveled abroad from March 29 to April 3 as part of their degree requirements for "Doing Business in World Regions." Twelve students from the EMBA, Business and Analytics, and Accounting programs also made the trip.
