Men's Rugby in Fourth National Championship

Saint Mary's Rugby has advanced to their fourth consecutive D1A national championship, competing against #1-ranked Life University for the fourth time as well. The College is hosting the championship match on Saturday, May 7, at 5 p.m., giving our ruggers a home field advantage.

Arabian Cultural Night: Middle East Uncovered

The third Arabian Cultural Night closes out the Intercultural Center's popular Cultural Nights spring series on May 4, 6–9 p.m. in the Soda Center with "Middle East Uncovered," which will share Middle Eastern culture with the community. There will be a henna station, photo booth, 6 p.m. dinner

Saint Mary's is a Poetry Powerhouse with an MFA in Creative Writing program (happy 20th anniversary!) that features stellar faculty (Brenda Hillman and Matthew Zapruder), alumni (Gabe Gomez '00, Lily Brown '07, and Paul Ebenkamp '09), and students.

Behind the Scenes of the Jan Term Play

What happens backstage in a theater production makes all the difference. This year marked the 24th year the College has offered the Jan Term class, Creating Theater for Young Adults. SMC students spend an intense month producing all aspects of a children's show—this year it was Charlotte's Web—from acting to set production. (Pictured: Amanda Ramos '18 as Fern Arabel.)

MS in Management's New Korean Partnership

SEBA's new MS in Management program has announced a partnership with Chung-Ang University and Anhlab, a Korean software business, to coordinate a hands-on immersion project pairing international and American students. There is an information session May 3, 6–7 p.m. in Filippi Hall.
