Building Her Case

For Carina Novell '16, missing a race during her senior season was stressful. She had to focus and do her best, but not because she was injured. One of three seniors and a leader on the team, Novell had to think hard while her team competed without her in Sacramento's Capital Cross Challenge because she was taking the Law School Admission Test (LSAT).

Last Friday, Assemblymember Susan Bonilla (D-Concord) met with SMC students, President Jim Donahue, and staff on campus to discuss the proposed state budget, which currently includes a reduction of 11 percent in Cal Grants for new private nonprofit awardees in 2016-17. "When I was looking at schools, I didn't even consider Saint Mary's. Saint Mary's found me, and with financial aid, the Cal Grant has allowed me to be here," said Shawn Culpepper '18 (third from left, listening to Bonilla).
