Did You Know?

The Buttimer Institute of Lasallian Studies, an intensive Lasallian education and formation program that meets for two weeks every summer for three years, began yesterday and will continue through July 9. Year one covers the founding story of Saint John Baptist de La Salle, year two covers De La Salle's educational vision, and year three is about De La Salle's spiritual vision. This year, there are three SMC faculty and staff participants. Buttimer is just one of many Lasallian opportunities for staff and faculty.

Uncovering Real World Experience

Digging up bones in an Irish monastery and learning about gardens in Costa Rica were just a few of the summer activities for Lizette Guevara '16 and Sawyer Boigenzahn '16 (pictured above). Their experience was more than just anthropological and archaeological fieldwork—they applied their studies to the real world and expanded their perspective.

Hearst Foundation Awards SMC $100,000

Saint Mary's has been awarded $100,000 by the Hearst Foundation to fund 10 students' education in the 2016-17 academic year. This new grant makes it possible for students who cannot otherwise afford an SMC education to attend the College, where 70 percent of undergraduates receive need-based financial aid.

Navigating Online Teaching

SF Gate featured a video about SEBA's Digital Driver's License program, which teaches professors how best to teach online effectively. This year, Saint Mary's online MBA program was recognized as the second best MBA program in California by U.S. News and World Report. This story was sponsored by Saint Mary's, the result of a partnership between SEBA and the San Francisco Chronicle.
