A Call for Unity, Hope, and Resolve

President Jim Donahue reflects on the police shootings in Baton Rouge and Falcon Heights, and the police ambush in Dallas. He urges "all of us to reflect on last week as both a call to action to address racial bias in our own communities and to examine our responsibilities."

SEBA Students Granted Prestigious Scholarships

Shubhi Badjatiya (right), an undergrad business student and Guyette Fellow, and Tomisha Miller (left), a graduate student in the hybrid accounting program, were each granted scholarships from the Financial Women's Club of San Francisco. The prestigious women's club credits itself as the first organization for executive women in finance in the country.

Cal Grant Will Not Be Cut

Governor Jerry Brown recently signed a $122.5 billion budget for 2016-17 which fully funds the Cal Grant for the private nonprofit sector. No changes were made to the maximum award for Cal Grant A or B—Cal Grant A will remain at $9,044 and $1,656 for Cal Grant B. The proposed 11 percent cut is expected to be revisited in next year's budget.
