Did You Know?

IT Services is offering a new service called Hoonuit, similar to Lynda.com, an online, on-demand, training site that offers over 50,000 tutorial videos on more than 250 technology applications, including Microsoft, Google, and Adobe. Topics such as e-portfolios, digital storytelling,

President Jim Donahue has begun offering open office hours for students weekly through the semester. Current students can sign up for individual 15-minute meetings with the president to ask questions, convey concerns, or simply chat with him. Meetings will be held in the president's office on the second floor of Filippi Hall (same building as the Registrar and Business offices). Students should sign up in advance here.

New Resource Page for Undocumented Students

Saint Mary's is committed to protecting the rights and safety of all current SMC students, including our most vulnerable students who are undocumented. Following up on President Jim Donahue's information session on DACA and immigration rights, the College has created a resource page for students impacted by changes to the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program.

At 75, Seminar Still Sets Saint Mary's Apart

accessibility, APA/MLA research paper basics, and first-year experience course topics/alignment are presented in short videos, so learners can easily find the training they need. Instructors can pull Hoonuit videos directly into their Moodle courses. Training is accessible 24/7. From the My Saint Mary's Page, look for Hoonuit located between Get Connected and Human Resources and login using your SMC credentials. Questions? Stop by the EdTech Center on the first floor of the library for help.
