

Art & Art History and the Core Curriculum

Art and Art History is a multi-disciplinary department that allows students to satisfy several Core Curriculum requirements within Pathway to Knowledge and Engaging the World.

Artistic Analysis and Creative Practice

AH001, ART001, ART003, ART004, ART055, ART070, ART 101, ART 155, ART175, ATC 80

Artistic Understanding

AH002, AH144, AH145, AH165, AH166, ML126, ML186

Artistic Understanding and the Common Good

ML186 Italian Civilization

Artistic Understanding and Global Perspectives

AH 002 non-Western Art Survey, AH 144 Issues in non-Western art

Theological Understanding (also offered in January Term)

TRS 167 Christian Art

Global Perspectives and Social, Historical Understanding

Anthro 005 Intro to Archaeology

ART/HISTORY OF ART: SPLIT MAJOR AGREEMENTS

The program offers two split majors: History of Art and Italian Studies or History of Art and Archaeology. Other split majors, such as Art/History of Art and Business, are available by arrangement. For more information, please email Costanza Dopfel at cdopfel@stmarys-ca.edu

ART/HISTORY OF ART: SEMESTER ABROAD

Our ART/AH majors are encouraged to study abroad for a semester. Popular choices are Aix-en-Provence, Florence and Rome