Did You Know?

Librarians are brimming over with helpful information. Need library sources but don't know where to start? Searching for a book, article, or data to inform your argument? Not sure how to cite a source in your bibliography? Ask a librarian! Research help is available in person at the reference desk, by phone at (925) 631-4624, and during reference hours you can even text a librarian at (925) 235-4762 or chat live via the library's website. Check the library's Ask Us page for details.

U.S. Poet Laureate Speaks on Immigration

Students, faculty, and staff flocked to the Soda Center early Saturday morning to hear Juan Felipe Herrera, the first Latino United States Poet Laureate. Herrera was the featured speaker of CILSA's Leadership for Social Justice Conference, "Living Truths: Migrating Voices." "It's beautiful to be migrants," he said, "because migrants are trailblazers and pioneers."

Students Compete in Hult Prize Competition

Last week, students participated in the 2016 Hult Prize Competition, hosted by SMC's Net Impact chapter, proposing projects focused on ways to solve problems due to overpopulation, poverty, and pollution in urban environments. Each team had seven minutes to present its plan to the panel of judges, which included Tesla Motor's CIO Jay Vijayan.

Go Gaels

Rahon Powers Gaels Past Stanford

After spending last season on Saint Mary's bench as a spectator following a transfer from Boston College, Joe Rahon anxiously waited for his chance to play again. With three consecutive blowout wins to open the season, including a stunner against defending NIT champion Stanford, Rahon is certainly relishing his time back on the court. Rahon scored a season-high 24 points and helped spark a big run in the second half to lead SMC to a 78-61 win over Stanford on Sunday night.
