Did You Know?

The four Contra Costa County bus operators (County Connection, Tri Delta Transit, Wheels, and WestCAT) began accepting Clipper cards on Nov. 1. Clipper is the all-in-one transit

Top-Secret Math

Don't bother asking Erica Musgrave '16 how she spent her summer. One of the top college math students in the United States, Musgrave will say only that she interned for 12 weeks at the National Security Agency in Maryland. "It's classified," she said.

Teachers for Tomorrow Anniversary Party

The Saint Mary's community, including alumni, gathered last week to toast the Teachers for Tomorrow program and to honor co-founders Carole Swain (above, far right) and Jerry Brunetti, and former co-director Susan Marston. Since 1999, the program has sent 125 teachers into positions in elementary schools throughout the Bay Area and beyond.

Future Forecasts

ticket that can be used for fares on 17 transit agencies, including BART. Get a Clipper card online at clippercard.com, stores like Walgreens and Whole Foods, or by calling (877) 878-8883.

Lasallian Reflections

For the week of Nov. 9.

Learn how to submit Events and Announcements.

"It's difficult to make predictions, especially about the future," said Yogi Berra or Mark Twain. In 1943, IBM's founder said that a few room-sized computers were all the world needed and a 1955 soothsayer predicted nuclear-powered vacuum cleaners. In the fall magazine's Roundtable, we asked the SMC community: What innovation did you expect in the future, and did it happen?

Sexuality and the Catholic Tradition

Catholic theologian James Alison and Catholic philosopher Sherif Girgis discussed contemporary notions of sexuality, gender, and the family in the Catholic tradition in last week's forum, "Sexuality and the Christian Understanding of the Human Person." There is a follow-up roundtable discussion Tuesday, Nov. 10, 3-4:30 p.m. in the Soda Center.
