Did You Know?

Take a peek inside the Joseph L. Alioto Recreation Center, opening this spring. The 60,000-square-foot center, which includes a pool, climbing wall and indoor courts, has jobs for about 150 students.

Smoke-Free

The Health and Wellness Center surveyed about 800 students on the Smoke-Free Campus Initiative, a proposed policy that would designate smoking areas before phasing in a smoking ban. Sixty-seven percent prefer a smoke-free campus and 85 percent support a stronger smoking policy.

Career Guru Retires

After 18 years at Saint Mary's, Career Center Director Patty Bishop is retiring on a high note, with the Center preparing students for the working world better than ever before. Say goodbye to Patty Thursday, Jan. 29, 3–5 p.m. at the Career Center.

The library is home to the Library for Lasallian Studies, a collection available to researchers to use inside the library. It includes printed works by and about De la Salle, and also a collection of works about French religious and spiritual thought. If you wish to use this collection, contact a librarian for an appointment.

Do you have a little-known tidbit or story about Saint Mary's? Send it to Campus News.
