#GivingTuesday Is Tomorrow, Dec. 2

As the world celebrates philanthropy tomorrow with #GivingTuesday, join Gaels everywhere to support SMC students' education. A gift of $100, $50, $25—no amount is too small—will help our students continue to change the world. Tomorrow is also the last day of the Fall Faculty and Staff Giving Drive. Please make your gift today!

Evette Castillo Clark Celebrates First Year

On her first anniversary as dean of students, Evette Castillo Clark talks about the strength she has always found in community and relationships, which continues for her at Saint Mary's. She also discusses the Saint Mary's Cares campaign and the bystander policy.

What Does It Mean to Love Your Neighbor?

Do we love our neighbors because they are like us? Or is the challenge of this core tenet of the Judeo-Christian tradition and civil society more difficult? In our fall magazine's Roundtable, we ask Saint Mary's alumni and faculty: What does it mean to love your neighbor?
