Did You Know?

Oliver Hall was named after Bartley P. Oliver from the class of 1873. He was president of the Alumni Association in 1891 and became locally famous for serving as foreman of the grand jury that indicted San Francisco Mayor Eugene Schmitz for corruption.

Planning and Collaboration Yield Results

As the College launches a strategic planning effort, strategies designed to improve student access and success are seeing marked positive results. Provost Beth Dobkin points to the promising outcomes that result from a campus focused on working together. Read more.

SEBA Takes Executive Training Program to China

SEBA professors are in China this month, providing executive training to 50 middle- and upper-level managers at LongRich Bioscience, one of that nation's largest and most advanced cosmetic and health care product research, development and manufacturing centers. Read more about the program.

Culture of Commencement

With the beginning of spring semester we are conscious of the fact that the most important event in the academic year will be here before we know it: Commencement! A new office at Saint Mary's is working to make sure students stay on track to participate fully in Commencement after four years. Read more about this student success initiative. And read all about Commencement Weekend.
