President Donahue on Inter-Religious Dialogue

James A. Donahue, president of Saint Mary's College, will explore the challenges and opportunities of inter-religious dialogue and how it can influence theological thought in his lecture, "Catholic Identity, Catholic Theology, and Inter-Religious Dialogue: A Practitioner's Reflections," on Wednesday, April 23 at 7 p.m., in Saint Mary's College Chapel.

High Potential Celebrates 40 Years

The High Potential Program marks 40 years of serving the needs of promising under-represented students, who are often the first in their families to go to college, on April 22, 4-7 p.m., at the Soda Center.

De La Salle Week, April 27–May 4

De La Salle Week is seven days of events for the Saint Mary's community to explore and celebrate the legacy of Saint John Baptist de La Salle. A highlight is Academic Convocation, featuring an address this year by Lasallian educator Brother Armin Altamirano Lustrero FSC, Secretary of the Department of Education in the Philippines. Brother Dominic Berardelli reflects on the brave acts of this humble educator and leader.

Green Team Report and Earth Day

The Saint Mary's Sustainability Committee has released its first-ever report in conjunction with Earth Day. The report highlights the many successes—as well as the challenges—behind the school's bid to be more planet-friendly. Join the committee at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday outside Filippi Hall for a Tree Dedication Ceremony to commemorate the inauguration of President Jim Donahue. See other Earth Day activities here.

Student Employee of the Year

Three cheers for Amanda Collins '14 and her stellar work in the Department of Athletics. From her role as liaison to Division I visiting teams to managing schedules and assisting with televised sporting events, she goes the extra mile and is an invaluable member of the department. Collins "epitomizes what we want for Saint Mary's graduates," said Mark Papadopoulos, associate director of athletics.
