Invitation to the Academic Convocation

President James Donahue invites the Saint Mary's community to the Academic Convocation honoring Brother Robert Schieler, FSC, the Superior General of the Christian Brothers, on Wednesday, April 22 during De La Salle Week. Brother Robert's career is an outstanding example of life-long leadership and service in Lasallian education.

Lucia Silecchia to Speak at Cummins Institute

Lawyer Lucia Silecchia, a professor at Catholic University School of Law, will deliver "Promises to Keep: Intergenerational Solidarity as a Touchstone for Law-Making" as the Cummins Institute spring lecturer, Tuesday, April 14 at 7 p.m. in Hagerty Lounge. She will address the intergenerational responsibilities related to the environment, aging, and intellectual property.

Evan Marwell Named Visionary of the Year

Education Superhighway CEO and founder Evan Marwell has been named the first ever Visionary of the Year. The award, presented by the Saint Mary's M.B.A. and the San Francisco Chronicle, is given to Bay Area leaders whose foresight helps improve the world.

Asian Cultural Night Explores Personal Stories

Just what is the American Dream? Read about it in the spring issue of the Saint Mary's magazine, which is online now—and the print version arrives on campus this week. And, besides making us sick, what role do viruses play in the evolution of life on Earth? SMC Professor Keith Garrison talks about this and his research on HIV/AIDS.

Do you have a little-known tidbit or story about Saint Mary's? Send it to Campus News.

Lasallian Reflections

For the week of April 7.

Learn how to submit Events and Announcements.

The cultural nights continue this week with "I Am Because We Are," the 18th annual Asian Cultural Night on Thursday, April 9, 6-9 p.m. in the Soda Center. The theme examines "the influence of our cultural past, its significance on our present, and its implications for our future," said co-chairs Andrew Nguyen '15 and Annamarie Santos '16. Tickets will be sold at the door starting at 5 p.m.

Tier III Scheduling Open

Highlights of the 2015-16 academic calendar are now available and scheduling for Tier III events is underway, which includes smaller campus events, institutional and departmental meetings, plus meetings of the Associated Students Senate and assorted clubs.

IT Connects More Classrooms to Central Server

IT Services has now connected Windows computers in all classrooms, except in Brousseau Hall, to a central server, which makes the machines run faster and lowers equipment costs. This technology, called Virtual Desktop Infrastructure, has been successfully piloted in Garaventa Hall and the library's computer lab. Questions? Call (925) 631-4266 or visit any Tech Bar location.
