About half of Saint Mary's student-athletes—153 total—were honored recently by the West Coast Conference, which recognizes student-athletes who successfully balance athletic success with academic excellence, for earning a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher. A total of 15 Gaels earned gold honors with GPAs of at least 3.75.

Did You Know?

Did you know that Saint Mary's wireless configuration is going to change this Wednesday, Aug. 5? A new approach to WiFi will replace the current process, making it even easier to get online.

View from California Teacher's Summit

Last Friday, Saint Mary's hosted 400 teachers at Better Together: California Teachers Summit, a free one-day statewide education summit that linked 15,000 preK-12 teachers at 33 locations to discuss implementation of the California Standards, including the Common Core. Speakers included actress Yvette Nicole Brown, educational consultant Kevin Harrigan, and astronaut Leland Melvin. Also, KSOE doctoral candidate Adam Clark and alumni Kevin Harrigan and Kathleen Moore delivered TED Talk-style presentations.
