Contra Costa Mayor's Healthy Cookoff at Todos Santos Plaza in Concord last week. Chosen by Moraga Mayor Ken Chew as one of the best local chefs, Team Gabe prepared a selection of healthy meal options. While coming up a bit short on the prize, Kinney's first foray into the Iron Chef-style event was a great success.

Singing Their Praises

The 30 members of the Saint Mary's Chamber Singers and Glee Club wowed an international audience in Riga, Latvia, when they won two gold medals at the World Choir Games Competition last month. They also impressed Martin Rokeach, Music Program Director of the Performing Arts Department, who wrote in a letter, "Their four-song set was, to my ear, flawless—the only time in my 30-year teaching career I couldn't find a single detail to improve."

Bridge to Barcelona

To bridge culture gaps and better understand global business, SEBA hosted a group of graduate business students from La Salle University Barcelona for the second year. Spanish students lived and learned on campus for two weeks and also visited Bay Area companies and organizations.
