SMC Symposium Probes the Mystery of Gov. Jerry Brown

Who is Jerry Brown? Is California's longest-serving governor an idealist or a scrappy, bare-knuckles politician? A visionary trailblazer or a calculating opportunist? A November 12 symposium at Saint Mary's College on "Governor Jerry Brown: Leadership & Legacy" examined the impact of one of the Golden State's most iconic political leaders and found plenty of evidence for all those descriptions. The paradox of intelligence is that as we mature mentally we ask more questions only to find fewer answers. Playwright Laura Jacqmin—who came to Saint Mary's last weekend for Performing Arts' West Coast premiere of And when we awoke there was light and light—populates her play with such tough questions and complicated characters. Read about the performance and hear from the playwright.

Gaels: Costa Helps Adult Students Find a New Path

Sue Norton Costa, the program manager for the B.A. Program in Leadership and Organizational Studies, has been working with adult learners at SMC since she came to the College 23 years ago. She enjoys witnessing the changes in students as they "find their voice, realize their talents and often come to see the world in a new way." Read a Q&A with Costa.
