#Giving Tuesday Is Dec. 2

There is one day for giving thanks and there are two for getting deals—Black Friday and Cyber Monday. Now there's #GivingTuesday, a global day for giving back. On Tuesday, Dec. 2, charities, families, businesses, students—and the Saint Mary's community—will come together to celebrate generosity and give.

Super G: The Confluence of Gratitude and Giving

It turns out there's more to philanthropy than just doing good and more to gratitude than just saying, "Thanks." Grateful and generous people are happier, healthier and more positive than people who aren't, according to emerging data.

Spotlight on Staff: Ruben Dionson

Event and Conference Supervisor Ruben Dionson, parent of two SMC grads, oversees set-up for events like graduation, baccalaureate and the Welcome Mass. Dionson loves golfing, watching boxing, hanging out with his eight grandchildren and visiting the Philippines.

Update on Unionization Effort

The College provided an "excelsior list" to the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), including the names and addresses of all contingent faculty who fit the definition of a voting unit as agreed upon by the College and the Service Employees Union International (SEIU). Ballots will be mailed by the NLRB on Dec. 8. Read more.
