Saint Mary's Hosts Conference on Science and Civic Engagement

How do you increase interest in students in the areas of STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) and at the same time create a civic engagement course that benefits communities surrounding your college? That question was the focus of math and science professors from a dozen

California colleges and universities who gathered at Saint Mary's for a regional conference sponsored by SENCER (Science Engagement for New Civic Engagements and Responsibilities). Read more.

Panel on Moral and Ethical Leadership

SMC President James Donahue and Diocese of Stockton Bishop Stephen E. Blaire will share their insights on moral and ethical leadership Tuesday, Dec. 3, at 7 p.m. in the Soda Center. Father Mike Russo will moderate the approximately one hour discussion, the last in a semester-long course on Leadership. Read more about Tuesday's panel.

A History of Saint Mary's

After 35 years of teaching at Saint Mary's College, Ron Isetti, professor emeritus of history, has just published his latest book On these Promising Shores of the Pacific: A History of Saint Mary's College. It was a labor of love that took five years of digging through the archives on campus, at Mont La Salle and in Rome. Read about this and his next project.

Tech Help There For the Asking

When it comes to tech learning, drop-ins are encouraged at Tech Tip Thursday, where IT staff set up shop in the Faculty Dining Room, and at the Tech Bar in Galileo Hall, patterned after the Apple Store Genius Bar. As a result, it's easy to learn new technology. In fact, the Tech Bar has seen a three-fold increase in

Dream Time

If there's one class where it's okay to daydream, it's Father Justin Cannon's new dream class at Saint Mary's College. The young Priest-in-charge of St. Giles' Episcopal Church (a community that worships at the Saint Mary's Chapel) is starting a dream group in January, for anyone interested in exploring their innermost thoughts.
