Cultural Photograph in Myanmar and Singapore

Photos from Carla Bossard's Jan Term class—Cultural Photography in Myanmar and Singapore—are on display in the library February 17 through March 31. The course combined study of the culture and history of these two countries with cultural photography, an approach that combines good technique, art and the heart. See some of the photos taken during the course.

Disconnect, Power Off, and Unplug: The Lost Art of Solitude

On the occasion of Presidents Day we pause to reflect on the actions of John Quincy Adams. His role in establishing observatories during our nation's early history played a crucial role in the cultivation of American Astronomy.

Lasallian Reflections

For the week of Feb. 17.
