

English Major Law and Society Minor

As an English major, you will work closely with your professors, contemplating and writing about the principal genres of literature and the related medium of film. The critical thinking and writing skills an English major develops provide an excellent pathway to law school or for related fields in legal advocacy.

ENGLISH MAJOR REQUIREMENTS

LOWER DIVISION

English 19: Introduction to Literary Analysis

English 29: Approaches to Literature

UPPER DIVISION

English 175: Shakespeare

English 196: Senior Capstone

The remaining nine courses will be taken from the following five areas. Students must take at least one course in each area.

- I. Historical surveys
- II. Movements and Eras
- III. Authors and Genres
- IV. Theories and Methodologies
- V: The Art of Writing and Other Literacies

To ensure breadth, students must also take at least one course that fulfills each of the following (these will be satisfied in area courses): British literature, American literature, pre-1800 literature, diverse literatures

LAW AND SOCIETY MINOR REQUIREMENTS

Complete six courses. At least four courses must be upper-division.

American Legal Institutions

One course from a list of Domestic Justice courses

One course from a list of Global Justice courses

One course from a list of Skills courses

One course from a list of Field Placement courses + Two electives

English Major 4 Year Plan
Law and Society Minor
FALL 2018+ entry

Year 1

FALL	SPRING
English 4	English 5
English 19	English 29
Language	Language
SOC 4 or WGS 1 (SCH)	Seminar 1

Jan Term #1

Year 2

FALL	SPRING
English: Historical Survey	English: Movement and Era
Seminar 2	English: Authors and Genres
Math	Politics 107: American Legal Institutions
TRS 97	Pre-1800

Jan Term #2

Year 3:

FALL	SPRING
English 175: Shakespeare	English: Theories and Methodologies
English: Writing and other Literacies	UD Religious Studies
Science with a lab	ECON 100, JCL 10 or 130, POL 140 or 126 (CE)
Seminar 103	POL 125 (SCH)

Jan Term #3

Year 4

FALL	SPRING
English course: Area 1-5	English course: Area 1-5
English course: Area 1-5	English 196: Capstone
POL 195/SOC 126 or 195 internship	Seminar 104
PHIL 133	EXTRA course

Jan Term #4