Christians Breaking Down Walls Together

Churches throughout the world have set a course to tear down walls, reflects Brother Charles Hilken, chair of the Cummins Institute. This recent Cummins Blog offers information and a reflection on a shared initiative by the Lutheran Church of Germany, the Roman Catholic Church, and the World Council of Churches. The time is ripe for the vigor of conscience, commitments to personal reform and common human welfare, and a wide sympathy for others suffering persecution and the ravages of war.

Taking Flight

All his life, Cameron Cabading '18 has been building—from roller coasters out of blocks, to remote-controlled cars, robots, and now drones. A transfer student from Diablo Valley College, Cabading has become a drone enthusiast, building, fixing, flying, and teaching about drones. Curious about the high-flying drones over campus?
