Scholars' Reception Honors Faculty

Last Friday, Saint Mary's held its annual Scholars' Reception honoring faculty members' research, scholarship, and creative work during the past year. The college recognized four faculty members—Patrizia Longo, Myrna Santiago (third from right), Ae Leah Soine (center in dark blue), and Gloria Aquino Sosa—for outstanding work on and off campus, and also faculty returning from sabbaticals.

Celebrate Black History Month

Recognize Black History Month this week with two events. Today, UC Berkeley Professor Waldo Martin talks about the history of the Black Panther party in "Are You Ready for the Revolution?" at 6:30 p.m. in Galileo 201. And next Monday, Feb. 27, at 7 p.m. join the Praise Explosion in the Chapel, a Christian worship event grounded in Black spirituality (left). (The Shaun King event scheduled for Wednesday was cancelled due to medical reasons.)

The fourth annual Arabian Night, celebrating Middle Eastern culture, kicks off the first of six Cultural Nights Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. in the Soda Center. This year's theme, "Celebrate the Night," was chosen "to counteract the negativity we typically hear about the Middle East on the news," said Nicole Nino '19. Tickets, sold at the door, are $4 for SMC students, $6 for faculty, staff, and alumni, and $8 for everyone else. Children 5 and under are free.

Museum Reopens with Peter Freund's IRAN|USA

IRAN|USA, an original exhibition organized by the Saint Mary's College Museum of Art, presents a program of compelling video art and prints by artist and Professor Peter Freund through May 28. The multi-language exhibit re-visions key moments in the politically charged history of the two countries through the lens of an experimental artist. Hear Freund talk about the exhibit March 2, 4-6 p.m. at the museum.

Brothers Retreat Weekend

The De La Salle Christian Brothers invite young men ages 18–35 to a Come and See Weekend Retreat March 3–5 at their Napa Valley retreat center. A chance to learn more about the spirituality, community life, and Lasallian educational mission of the Brothers, participants can take away a deeper understanding of the Brother vocation. To register or for more information, contact Brother Chris Patiño, director of vocation ministry, at brochrisfsc@dlsi.org.
