Did You Know?

Several big construction projects will affect traffic to and from campus this fall. Rheem Boulevard is still closed between St. Mary's and Moraga roads (officially between Via Barcelona and Fernwood Drive). Also, work on a planned roundabout at the intersection of Pleasant Hill Road and Olympic Boulevard has begun. For updated information about these projects, subscribe to nixle.com for the Rheem closure and check the city of Lafayette's website for Pleasant Hill Road and Olympic Boulevard news.

Heads Up! New Students Move in This Week

Join the campus in welcoming new first-year students, who move in Wednesday and Thursday, 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Get ready by glancing at a campus map and this handy list of common questions. During move-in, faculty and staff will be directed to turn right; first-year students will turn left. Parking lots by Brother Urban Gregory Hall and first-year residence halls will be closed Aug. 24-25.

Campus Facilities' Summer Move-a-Thon

About 150 faculty and staff will have moved offices by the time the School of Economics and Business Administration moves to the Power Plant and Brother Urban Gregory Hall in early fall. Learn about new locations for Human Resources, the Student Success Office, and more in this update from Director of Project Management Diane Hardy.

A Catholic Force

There is a Jedi at Saint Mary's. Well, if you exchange the light saber for a Franciscan cross, and the Force for celebrating the Catholic sacraments, then there is. Father Hai Ho '03 is now a chaplain at the College, a Capuchin Franciscan, and a Gael.
