The Integral Program will use this grant to further develop its assessment process. The project will consist of three stages. In the first stage the Integral Program learning outcomes will be revised and an assessment plan will be established for each outcome. The necessary assessment tools, namely, a verbal communication rubric, will be developed and revised in the second stage. In the final stage a complete assessment cycle of the verbal communication learning outcome will be carried out.