College Joins Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society

Saint Mary's has joined Phi Kappa Phi, the nation's oldest, largest, and most selective all-discipline honor society, thanks to Brother Richard Lemberg FSC. The society's mission is to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and engage the community of scholars in service. There will be a chapter installation ceremony in the Soda Center Wednesday at 5 p.m.

Jan Term Class Attends Presidential Inauguration

SMC students attended last week's presidential inauguration in Washington, D.C. in the Jan Term class, "The Making of a President: Campaigns, Elections and Inaugural Politics," taught by Professor Monica Fitzgerald and Tim Farley, community and government relations director. Students are studying the presidency, the elector process, and visiting historical sites.

Meeting of Lasallian Minds

Saint Mary's welcomes 400 K-12 educators from five local Lasallian high schools and two academies—including Saint Mary's College High School and Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory—to share best classroom practices on Jan. 27. The San Francisco New Orleans Lasallian Symposium connects SMC with critical feeder schools—11 percent of SMC's freshmen attended Lasallian schools, said Vice President for Mission, Carole Swain. Visiting educators will attend sessions on everything from technology to educating urban youth. Contact Sally Jamison at sjamison@stmarys-ca.edu to attend.

Laser Sharp

is faster than SMC-Guest, running on more bandwidth, helpful for those who stream data, such as movies and video clips. It is also more secure because it runs on an encrypted connection.
