Position Title: Postdoctoral Resident

College: Saint Mary’s College of California

Department: Counseling and Psychological Services Center (CAPS)

Salary Range: $28,000+ benefits for 9.5 months

Position Description:
Saint Mary’s College Counseling and Psychological Services Center (CAPS) is pleased to announce our Postdoctoral position for the 2015-2016 academic year, beginning August 17, 2015 and concluding May 31, 2016. The Residency requires a 9.5 month, 40 hour per week commitment in order to meet California licensing requirements of 1500 hours supervised postdoctoral experience. Generous leave is offered during holidays, sick time and vacation.

Clinical responsibilities include: individual and group psychotherapy, intake assessment, crisis intervention, triage, on-call and consultation. Other duties include: program development, workshops, classroom presentations, and special projects as assigned. CAPS collaborates with many departments including the Athletic Department, Health and Wellness Center, Intercultural Center, Residence Life, and Women’s Resource Center. The Postdoctoral Resident actively reaches out to underrepresented populations such as: students from a low socioeconomic group, first generation college students, LGBTQIQ community, students with disabilities and students of color.

The training component of the Postdoctoral position includes: clinical seminar, outreach seminar, cross cultural conversations class, individual and group supervision, case conference, group training/supervision and supervised consultation of an intern. The Counseling Center’s theoretical orientation is primarily psychodynamic with a strong emphasis on relational theories. The fall seminar focuses on brief psychodynamic treatment with specific training from Hanna Levenson’s (1995) book, Time Limited Dynamic Therapy (TLDP) and the spring seminar focuses on various clinical issues such as trauma, eating disorders, personality disorders through a psychodynamic lens.
Minimum Qualifications:  Psy.D, Ph.D. in Clinical/Counseling Psychology from APA accredited graduate program, completed by start date of August 17, 2015. Verification by chair required.

Preferred Qualifications: College/University Counseling Center experience at practicum and/or internship level. Fluency in Spanish in a therapy setting is desired but not required.
