Goal 1: Graduates will be critical thinkers and will have an in-depth understanding of accounting principles, theories and concepts.

- Objective 1: Each student will develop a deeper knowledge and understanding of accounting principles, theories and concepts and be able to identify accounting and business problems and use the appropriate research tools to develop effective solutions to accounting problems.
- Objective 2: Each student will be able to analyze emerging developments and their possible effect on accounting theory and practice.

Goal 2: Graduates will understand professional responsibilities and ethics.

- Objective 1: Each student will be able to recognize ethical weaknesses in accounting situations and be able to propose effective solutions to those weaknesses.
- Objective 2: Each student will understand his/her professional responsibilities and the role of corporate governance, risk management and internal controls.
Goal 3: Graduates will be effective communicators.

- Objective 1: Each student will be able to work effectively as part of a team, either as a leader or a participant and be able to effectively collaborate and negotiate within the team.
- Objective 2: Each student will be able to communicate effectively in oral and written forms and in ways appropriate to the situation and audience.

Goal 4: Graduates will be proficient in the assessment and use of accounting information and technology.

- Objective 1: Each student will understand the importance and elements of high quality accounting information and the role of technology.
- Objective 2: Each student will understand how to assess and use information and exercise appropriate judgment.