After completing the Engineering program at Saint Mary’s, students will have a working knowledge of the physical world and mathematics and a developed ability to reason and communicate. These gains will allow the students to succeed in the specialized engineering courses taken after transferring and to work effectively as an engineer upon graduation.