Student Learning Outcomes

B.A. in History

• Think historically, read critically, write coherently and speak persuasively.
• Situate major historical events within their proper chronological, geographical, thematic and comparative context.
• Connect and integrate historical knowledge, grasp the ethical and moral dimensions of history and appreciate the complex and often multi-causal origins of past events.
• Identify, evaluate, critique, and interpret a variety of historical sources, both primary and secondary.
• Explain the value and application of historiography and various historical methods, approaches and theories.
• Use primary and secondary sources to construct sophisticated, persuasive, and logical interpretations of historical problems and events.