Student Learning Outcomes
B.A. in Theology & Religious Studies

• Demonstrate an understanding of the Christian theological tradition through an exploration of specific topics in theology and the Bible.
• Demonstrate an understanding of how Christian thought and/or practice has developed in a specific historical period.
• Demonstrate an understanding of the worldview (e.g., beliefs, practices, etc.) of a non-Christian religious tradition.
• Demonstrate an understanding of the implications of the Catholic concept of the fundamental dignity of the human person.
• Demonstrate an ability to employ contemporary theories and methods of theology and/or religious studies in analyzing religious beliefs, texts, and/or practices.
• Demonstrate an ability to explain, analyze, and evaluate multiple informed perspectives in debates about theological and ethical issues.
• Demonstrate an ability to evaluate the interplay between religion and social, cultural, and/or political phenomena.