

Program of Study (Summer Start) Education Specialist – Mild/Moderate Program

Name: _____

Start Date: _____

Summer Term (10 units)
SPED 290*	Learning & Development for the Education Specialist (2)	_____
SPED 291	Introduction to Inclusive Education: Legal, Ethical, & Educational Foundations (2)	_____
SPED 292	Best Practices for the Education Specialist: Introduction to Assessment, Curriculum & Case Management (3)	_____
SPED 293	Educational & Assistive Technology for Mild/Moderate Disabilities (1)	_____
SPED 295*	Universal Access for English Learners (2)	_____
Fall Term (8 units)
SPED 299	Assessment & Program Planning (3)	_____
SPED 294	Teaching and Learning Mild/Moderate Disabilities I (with fieldwork component) (4).	_____
SPED 280*	Literacy Preparation in General Education: K-12 (3)	_____
January Term
	Preparation for RICA – No classes this term	_____
Spring Term (12 units)
SPED 282	Positive Behavior Support (3)	_____
SPED 296*	Health Education (1)	_____
SPED 297	Consultation, Collaboration, and Communication for the Education Specialist (2)	_____
SPED 298	Teaching and Learning Mild/Moderate Disabilities II (with fieldwork component) (6)	_____
Additional coursework to complete M.Ed. in Special Education (12 units)
SPED 430	Current Issues / Emerging Practices for Special Educators(3)	_____
EDUC 572	Research Seminar I (3) Can be taken concurrently with SPED430	_____
EDUC 582	Research Seminar II (3)	_____
EDUC 592	Thesis / Synthesis Project (3)	_____

Total Units for Credential Only 32 units
Total Units for Credential & Master 44 units

I understand that any changes in this program must be approved by my academic advisor.

Signature

Date

* Courses may not be required for students holding Multiple Subject or Single Subject credentials.