Campus Safety Tips

With the growing concern among students regarding campus safety, we thought that it would be advantageous to present the following information. A college campus is a great place to learn and grow. But a college campus, like any other community, has its share of accidents, crimes and injuries. The following is a list of tips that you can use to protect yourself and others.

GENERAL SAFETY TIPS:

Some Tips On Avoiding Attacks:

- There is safety in numbers, travel in a group.
- Try to stay near streetlights.
- Don't carry large amounts of cash.
- Plan and know your route ahead of time.
- Don't flaunt expensive jewelry.

If You're Being Followed:

- Cross the street.
- Change your direction.
- Keep Looking Back.
- Go to a well-lighted area.
- Notice as much as possible about the person following you.
- Try to attract attention by yelling "Police, Fire or Help."

Where You Live:

- Keep your doors locked at all times.
- Don't let strangers in your home.
- Don't leave a door unlocked for someone planning to come later.

Using Public Transportation:

- Try to avoid isolated bus or train stops and times of travelling when few people are around.
- Stay away from the curb until your bus arrives.
- If possible, sit near the driver and notify him/her of any problems.
